sage of Ashland :" Besides visiting the Adelphi, Mr. Clay visited the Model Artistes, and then sent them an invitation to partake of a glass of wine with him the next day, at his room, which was accepted. I am told that they went through some refined and classical exhibitions in his room, before a select few of Mr. Clay's friends, such as a public au lience could not appreciate very well, unless the veils were removed .-"Old Hall" is fond of sight-seeing.

SANDS' SARSAPARILLA.-The numerous unsolicited testimonials from individuals of the highest respectability, show in the most conclusive and satisfactory manner, the powerful agency this preparation possesses, in arresting and curing diseases of the glandular and osseous syst me. In its composition on which much of its activity and value depend, the most potent simples of the vegetable Kingd im are united, presenting a preparation, differing entirely in its character and operation from any other now in use linder its restoring influence, strength and vigor are imparted to the exhausted system, and health succeeds disease upon the same principle that spring succeeds to Winter, and the earth is clothed in verdant beauty under the genial influence of refreshing showers. Its approval by Physicians and men of Science, and the uniform success which has marked its use, furnishes proof sufficient to couvince every candid and discerning mind of its creat superiority and value Prepared and sold by A. B. & D. Sands, Drug-

A Question

FOR THE PUBLIC TO DECLE medicines, in preference to the genuine, merely for sale at 25 cents per bushel, by because they can make more per cent on them, would dea honestly in selling other articles? We think not. Persons that deal out counterfeit medicines, and thus encourage counterfeiters, even at the expense of the health and life of their customers and neighbors, are they honest or honorable PORTER—a decided improvement. For sale men! No. And they should be avoided. REMEMBER, Wm. Shaw is agent, and has for
